Abirached's Book Corner

More and more great words to know...

Now, you come up with a sentence using one of the words!

Luminous – giving off light

The full moon on Halloween was so luminous we did not need a flashlight to see our path.

Elated – filled with joy

Mrs. Sanchez was elated when every student attended school all week!

Absurd – without good sense

It was absurd to try to take the AR test without reading the book!

Curtail – to cut short, reduce!

The teacher suggested he curtail the time he spent playing video games if he wanted to do better on his homework.

Why does an elephant use her trunk as a bookmark?

Then she NOSE where she stopped reading!
