Sunrise with Sons

Please join us on Friday, September 6th, for our annual Sunrise for Sons. Tickets are available HERE. Only pre-sale tickets are available, there will be no sales at the door. This is a BR community event and is open to all. ALL will be allowed to purchase tickets and attend. It is a football theme and NFL day at BR! Dust off those jerseys and hats.

Q: Why do we call it Sunrise with Sons? Why doesn't BR have Donuts with Dad or Muffins with Mom like other schools?

A: About eight years ago, we sadly lost three parents in about six months. The administration realized the Muffins and Donuts events would be a sad day for these students, and many students without one or both parents would not attend the event. BR first made the change also to fit our philosophy of student-centered decisions and then made the change to Daybreak with Daughters and Sunrise with Sons. From the first event, we saw increased participation from students who had never attended. Since the change, the families have turned it into an event where everyone attends. It has been a fantastic, unattended consequence of the change. As a tradition, we have kept with the names because students and parents like that it is an event focused on sons or daughters, but the whole family can come to enjoy it. Plus, those are great names for the events! Now, many schools have gone to the student-centered names of events. We are proud of how other schools have followed us. We also have Dancing with Daughters and Soree with Sons put on by our PTC. All events are equal and rotated every year on our calendar.

Parent Teacher Club

Make sure to join our PTC. They are the greatest support to students, teachers, coaches, and advisors on campus. It is easy to join, has excellent benefits, and is tax deductible. Join today at: www.ptcbudrank.com/store.

Have an excellent three-day weekend!
